Doyle Restrepo Harvin & Robbins, L.L.P., congratulates James Doyle, Ron Restrepo, Andy Harvin, Mike Robbins, Cynthia Pickett, Stephen Lee, and Marianne Ibrahim for being recognized as H Texas Magazine Top Lawyers for 2008. This honor reflects the Firm's well-earned reputation of professionalism and dedication to its clients in a complex and ever-changing legal environment.

The firm tries lawsuits. This aggressive team of trial lawyers brings to counsel's table more than 100 years of trial experience. Representing both plaintiffs and defendants, the firm has tried more than 200 lawsuits, injunctions, and arbitration proceedings covering a wide array of cutting-edge issues and involving substantial economic exposure. In addition to her litigation practice,

Cynthia Pickett also brings a wealth of experience in complex business transactions, concentrating on oil and gas issues.

Whether inside or outside the courtroom, the firm helps its national and local client base solve problems and maximize opportunities – a simple but serious commitment to excellence, confirmed by every positive result and reaffirmed with every new case or business transaction. The firm's hard-fought successes for its clients are well-documented and result not only in repeat business and longstanding relationships, but in prestigious awards such as this one.

Once again, the firm congratulates its Top Lawyers for 2008 and thanks its clients, peers, and the Houston legal community for this recognition.
